

Stan Editions

Stan Editions, founded by 28-year-old Belgian entrepreneur Stan Verstraete, is a young design brand in which Stan develops refreshing new products, sometimes in cooperation with other interesting designers and creatives. The first product, CANDL STACKS, is the result of the search for a new way to use candles. Inspired by the increasing supply of sculpted candles, the team behind Stan Editions developed their own candle sculpture in 2020. This is a tower of candles that can be stacked, dismantled, burned up and rebuilt in endless ways.

The unique thing about Stan Editions is that it gives the user, both the end consumer and the shops, the freedom to create their own towers or stacks. The Stan Editions pre-made stacks are just a start, they encourage creativity and form the basic package to build on. The addition of one new colour or shape suffices to form a completely new stack. In this way, both the end consumer and the shops get the chance to build stacks that are perfectly attuned to their own universe and interior.
